Hellesylt BRIKSDAL GLACIER WALK

In a nutshell

Have you ever seen a glacier? This is exactly what we'll be doing on this tour – and not just on any glacier either: the Briksdal, a spectacular expanse of ice hidden among the magnificent Norwegian fjords.

Main stops

- Village of Hellesylt and Hellesylt waterfall
- Lake Hornindalsvanet
- Nordfjord, villages of Stryn, Loen and Olden
- Briksdal Glacier and spectacular nature
- Mountain lodge near the glacier with a stop for lunch
- Road to Stryn, return trip via Geiranger, tunnels and panoramic viewpoint at Flydal Gorge

The programme

- Our excursion begins in the village of Hellesylt, where we can admire the majestic waterfall of the same name, whose waters cascade down to the shimmering emerald green and ultramarine blue fjord below.
- We continue our journey towards Hornindalsvanet which, at a depth of 514 metres, can claim to be Europe's deepest lake; before us lies the magnificent Nordfjord, alongside the road through the villages of Stryn, Loen and Olden. This fascinating village nestles at the bottom of the fjord and stretches along numerous lakes in the Olden Valley as far as the mountain lodge at the Briksdal Glacier.
- Our walk takes us through stunning nature to the Briksdal Glacier, a branch of the mighty Jostedalsglacier, the largest in Europe.
- At first, the path climbs and crosses over the waterfall on a wooden bridge.
- At this point we find ourselves standing face to face with the massive glacier.
- We'll then walk back the same way to the mountain lodge, where we'll enjoy an excellent lunch.
- Back on our journey, we cross the valley alongside the extraordinarily beautiful lake towards Stryn.
- We climb the mountain road to Stryn, which used to link eastern Norway with the west.
- Our return journey to Geiranger runs through quite a few tunnels, and we make a final stop at Flydal to take a few snapshots of our ship, waiting for us in the fjord.

It was collected and sent down the valley using the løypestreng, a cable that stretched to the nearest barn.

- After admiring this incredible view, we will hike down to Westerås farm, which lies on a projection jutting out over Geiranger.

Stavanger TOUR OF STAVANGER AND SURROUNDINGS

In a nutshell

Sample the history of the city of Stavanger, for centuries one of the cornerstones of Norwegian maritime history: from a time when Viking kings fought battles on the Hafsrfjord to modern-day tankers, not forgetting the age of 'white sails' and steam ships. Don't miss this opportunity to visit the city and discover its many faces.

Main stops

- Ullandhaug
- Jæren landscape
- Ryfylke Mountains
- Sverd i fjell (the 'Swords in Rock')
- Stavanger Cathedral (outside visit)

- Old Stavanger

The programme

- We will set off from the port by coach through the lush agricultural landscape to Ullandhaug, an area famous for its reconstructions of Iron Age farms. Ullandhaug also boasts breath-taking views of the Hafrsfjord where, in 872, the Viking king Harald Fairhair defeated the last of the local princes and unified 29 small kingdoms under one crown, founding the Kingdom of Norway. To the east stretches the fertile landscape of Jæren, with the Ryfylke Mountains in the distance.
- We will then continue to the outskirts of Stavanger to admire the Sverd i fjell ('Swords in Rock'), a fascinating memorial by the sculptor Fritz Røed. The monument depicts three 10 metre-high swords that commemorate the historic battle of Hafrsfjord. The largest sword represents the victorious Harald, while the smaller ones symbolise the vanquished kings. The monument is also intended to symbolise peace, as the swords are struck in solid rock, from which they can never be removed.
- We will now pass through both the older and more modern districts of Stavanger; we will admire the outside of the Cathedral, built in around 1125 by Bishop Reinald of Winchester with the help of British craftsmen. Of all the churches built in Norway during the Middle Ages, Stavanger Cathedral is the only one that still retains its original features.
- Before returning to the ship, we will treat ourselves to a walk through 'Old Stavanger', with its typical narrow streets lined with picturesque wooden houses that date back to the 18th and 19th centuries, a time when it was home to sailors, craftsmen and merchants. This unique area, located just a few minutes from the port, is now at the centre of the city's most ambitious redevelopment project.
- Places on this excursion are limited. We recommend booking early.
- The Cathedral is currently under renovation, so the visit will be from outside.
- On following dates the Iron Age Museum will be closed. The visit will be replaced with the Archaeological Museum: 24.05.2023, 31.05.2023, 07.06.2023, 14.06.2023, 23.08.2023, 30.08.2023, 06.09.2023, 13.09.2023
